

VIT international conference
“Active Ageing and Local Governance:
How to involve elderly as active citizens in their local communities”

8th June 2012 h. 14.30 – 18.00

Auditorium, Friuli Venezia Giulia headquarter, Via Sabbadini 31, Udine Italy

- 14.30 - 15.00 Welcome addresses
by the President of ALDA
General overview of the EY 2012 and Active Ageing
Leila Giuseppina Nista and Rita Sassu, ECP - Europe for Citizens Point Italy
- Presentation of the AGE Europe Platform and the campaign on a European Covenant of Mayors on Demographic Change
Alice Sinigaglia, Coordinator of the coalition and campaign of the 2012 European Year of Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations
- 15.00 - 15.15 Choir of the University of Third Age of Trieste
- 15.15 - 15.45 Priority Healthy Cities and Solidarity Between Generation
Furio Honsell, Mayor of Udine
- 15.45 - 16.00 Coffee break
- 16.00 - 17.00 International panel on Active Ageing and the role of senior in town twinning: good practices from VIT partners

Moderator: Franco Iacop, Vice President of the V Permanent Commission of the Friuli Venezia Giulia Regional Council

Dorothee Fischer, RECREATURA arts et culture
Agnieszka Dybowska, Municipality of Bydgoszcz (tbc)
Tristan Dussol, AFCCRE (Association Française du Conseil des Communes et Regions d'Europe)
Mirela Muca, Albanian Association of Municipalities
- 17.15 - 18.00 Local panel on Active Ageing: good practices from the Region Friuli Venezia Giulia:

Ugo Lupatelli, President of the University of Third Age of Trieste
Mattia Vinzi, President of the Association Exist
- Conclusion

under the patronage of

