This two year regional project is designed as a set of activities involving local authorities and civil society organizations aiming

- to support good local intercultural governance through more effective participation of civil society and minority communities,
- to support the networking among local NGO-s involved in minority rights protection and foster exchange of good local practice in managing multiethnic local communities in the region,
- to help promote innovative local practices in support to intercultural dialogue and tolerance and raise public awareness on participation of minority communities at local level.
